TRUTH SUPPRESSED. Farther Isformation About Estate

Late Ocvereor Stevenson. Mr. Goabel, in his campaign for nomination, as a recommendation of himself to the people of Kentucky made the statement several times in his speeches that the late ex-Governor John W. Stevenson had named him es executor and trustee of his will without hand, and that he had continued to act in that capacity ever sinco the death of ex-Governor Stevenson and the probate of the will.

In no one of his specches did be state that he was not the sols executor and trustee of ex-Governor Stavenson's will.

The facts of the case sre that the will of ex-Governor Stevenson was ex-ecuted July 30, 1886, and admitted to probate by the Kenton county court Aug. 24, 1886, ex-Governor Stevenson having died Aug. 10, 1886. At that time Mr. Goehel was a lawyer in the office of Governor Stevenson, having an ostansible partnership with him, as their names appeared jointly upon the sign ontside of their

It was Governor Stsvenson who, when John L. Sandford returned from the Confederata service at the conclusion of the war, procured for him the Farmers' Bank of Kantucky at Cov-ington, the predecessor of the Covingon City National hank, in which hank Stevenson was a stockholder and a lirector.

Stevenson had been this friend of John L. Sandford's father, and he stood loyally by the son when he needed his assistance, and between the two men, John L. Sandford and Stevenson, the closest and warmest relations of friendship existed until the death of the latter.

When Governor Stavenson died Mr. Goebei had not commenced his political career, which did not begin until the year 1887, When Mr. Goebel was elact-Kenton county to fill the vacancy made by the election of 11on, J. W. ernor, and Governor Stevenson knew Bir. Goebel only as an industrious lawer, attentive to the duties of his profession, and did not know the charac teristics of the man which have been developed and brought to light by his public career. In his will Stevenson did not name Goebel as solo executor and trustee, but he appointed Edward Coiston, his son-in-law, then and now a prominent member of the Clacinnati har; J. D. Hearne, a resident of Covington than and now President of the Third National bank of Cincinuati, and previously president of the Covington City National hank, in which hank Stevenson had been associated with him as one of its directors, and Wil-Ham Goebei, their aurylvor or survivors, as joint executors of his will and trustees of the estate thereby created

Goebel have continued to dischargs jointly the duties of executors and trustees since the probate of the will. If Governor Stevenson, with his high sense of public duty, his devotion to constitutional government and his love of liherty secured by law, were alive today, he would not he found among the ranka of those who are supporting Goebel for the office of gov ernor, but rather standing side by side with his former partner, Judge James O'Hara, and with old Phil Thompson in opposition to all that is implied by

Mr. Goehel in his speeches urging his claims before the poopla of Kentucky insists that, in the late session of the isgislatura he voted for a messura designed to cheapen schoolbooks

Walving the question as to whethan the measure to which he refera, tha Chian hiii, would have reduced tha cost of schoolhooks, tha records of tha senate show that he never voted for that measure at all, the Chiun bill nsver having reached a vota in tha senate. It is a fact, however, that Mr. Brenston introduced a substitute for the Chinn hill, which had for its object the reduction la the prica of such books, and which was in avery way a bettsr and more practicable measura than the original hill.

In the consideration of this measura before the senate Mr. Goebel always voted against avery motion looking to ita passags; and on its final reading voted against the hill itself.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 14, 1899. Governor Brown and other promi nent Democrata knew at the time of state of my health rendered it improbin the pending campaign; but the fact was not generally known, and I now give this communication to the public to avoid eny misunderstanding of my views or of my fallure to eppear among the lorces working to prevent the stamp of approvel being put on the methods that culminated in the Louisville ticket.

I am heartly in accord with the Democrets of the State who are trying to save the party from the baleful influences now seeking to control it, and regret that my condition is such that I am compelled to remsin quiet while others are bearing the brunt of the fight. The issues are unfortunately notorions and well understood hy the country. They involve truth, honesty, ioyalty to the principles ol our party and to a Republican form of government.

If the Democratic party is to be worthy of the confidence and support of the people, it must be esreful of the rights of its individual members, true position of tailer in the hranch of the to its professed principles, and when in power enact laws fair to all citizens of the State. When any number of ita membera depart from these rulea, self preservation demands that, if they cannot be reclaimed, they must be repndiated.

> We carried the last State election without the Goebel Isw by over filteen thousand votes, and while the ballot needed additional safeguards that could easily have been provided, there was absolutely nothing to justify the pessage of an act capable of being used to rob every citizen of his Iranlive under the possibilities of this degrading law so repugnant to the man-What would the great old champion, had a shawl on. That it is red. Democratic to distranchise hundreda of delegates, representing tens of thousands of Democratic voters, when they stand in the way of the fell purporce of an office aceker?

Are they to be tempted by lust for office to ally themselves with shameful methods, and endeavor to fasten them on the people of Kentucky under the mistaken idea that the State is to be kept in line for nineteen hundred in that way? Do they expect by npholding, in the name of Democracy crimes against your party, your con science, your religion and your coun try, to induce you to endorse the "lske" delegates in the Louisville convention and the ticket that was ita production? Can they go before the country as the sponsora ola "lorce bill that gives the vofers of Kentucky not a ray of hope, that makes no claim or show of lairness, placing exclusively in the hands of three Irresponsible persona, named by the authora of the measure itseli, the entire election machinery of the State?' BIG SEARCHLICH

Thrown on Goebei's Record In Constitutional Convention.

Are Riddled in One Volley of Facts From Approved Journal.

A FEW THINGS GOEBEL DIDN'T DO.

The Provision Prohibiting the Conso Idailnn of Parallal Hall:oad Lines Doce Nul Helong on His List of P him Accumplisherauts.

Mr. Goehel's friends have been busy in fabricating for him a record which may win popular confidence and support. Based, however, upon absolutely faisa assumptions and atatements, it falls to pices with the slightest hna-

The Hon. I. H. Goodnight, in speech delivered at Franklin oa the 21st last., gave, according to the report of his speech in the Courier-Journai, "a sketch of Goebe, a leglalative career Ila said Goebel framed that section in tha present constitution which prohibits railroad companies owning and op erating parallel lines, and discriminating tn rates oa iong and short hauis, and the hill which made the offense of keeping a gamhiing house a felony in Kentucky.'

No matter whether Judge Goodnight actually made these statements, or the Courier-Journal laterpolated them in the report of hia speech, it is in either event an effort to aid Goebei's waning fortunes by claires which a moment's examination of the journal of the legislature and of the convention would hava discredited. For the reputation of the bench, we trust Judge Goodnight does not in court accept as coaclusivo such statements as those on which he bases his defense of Mr. Goebel. As Judga Goodalght has not tha time nor the lacilnation to furnish the evidence ta this casa, The Evening Post will do it for him, and in a form which will save him a great deal of trouble. II.

The bill making gambling a felony was something with which Mr. Goebei had nothing whatever to do. It originated in a crusade in Louisville against open gambling. The attorney of the League" was Mr. Joha B. Baskin of tha Louisvilia bar, now commissioner ia bankruptcy, and this bill was drawn by Mr. Baskin.

In tha legislature the bill was in charge of Mr. Dana Smith of Larue county. What Mr. Goehel's attitude was we do not know, but for the law as it stands the credit is due not at n! to Mr. Goebel, but to Mr. Baskin and to Mr. Smith.

III. Next, as to the cisim that to Mr. Goebel is due the credit for the con stitutionai provisioa prohibiting th consolidation of parallel and competing

The original resolution looking to the prevention of the buying up and op erating parailel and competing lines i found on page 169, and is in the followlag words:

"Resolved. That no railroad or other corporation, or the lessee, purchaser or managers of any railroad or corpora tion, shall consolidate the stock, prop erty or franchise of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the works or franchise of, or in any way control any other rallroad corporation owning of having under its control a parallel or competing line; nor shall any officer of such railroad or corporation act as off cer of any other railroad or corporation owning or baving the control of a parallel or competing line; and the question whether said railroads are paralici or competing lines shall, when dealanded by a party complainant, ha declded by a jury, ns in other civil

This was offered by Mr. Twyman, the delegate from Laruo county.

Mr. Edrington, page 1731, offered another resolution on this subject aimost identical with the resolution of Mr Twyman, hardly so full and explicit Both of these resolutions were referred to the committee on corporations, or which Mr. Boles was chairman.

The report of that committee is found on page 3634, and the section 12 of that report is identical with the section of the constitution except for the omission from the section as reported of the word "bridge" and the words "or atructura" in two placea. The debate or this measure begins on page 3711 and enda on paga 373f, and Mr. Goehel did not offer any amendment, nor did he make auy remarks in favor of the measure. Indeed, as there was no roilcali on this measure, there is nothing to show that he was even present.

IV. Now let us take up the "iong and short haul clause" of the constitution for which credit is claimed by Judge Goodnight for Mr. Goehei.

On page 172 of tha Debates of the Constitutional Coovention, it is stated that Mr. Edrington, delegate from criginal resolution on this subject, as followa:

"It shall not be lawful in this atats for any railway company to charge for freight or passengers a greater amount for the transportation of the same for a less distance than the amount charged for any greater distance, and suitable laws shall be passed by the geaerai assembly to eaforce this pro vision; but excursion or commutation ticketa may ba issued at apecial rates. This resolution was referred to the committee on railroads and commerce Mr. Whittaker, chairman, and section 15 of the report of that committee with one or two immaterial verbal changes, is identical with the section amendments were offered, but Mr. Goebel nelther spoke nor offered any amundmeats as to this mutter; in fact. two roll calls show that he was airsent during this discussion.

The pext matter of interest to the ublic in this connection is the constitutional provision establishing the railroad commission.

The original resolution, with reference to this subject, was offered by Dr. J. D. Ciardy, subsequently a member of coagress, then a delegate from of the "Dehates."

Referring to page 166 of these debutes we find a resolution offered by Mr. Johr. D. Carroll of Henry, relating to the same subject

The report of tha committee on raiioads and commerce, to which these resolutions were referred, in the first section thereof contained practically the clause which was finally adopted in the constitution. The debate beginn oa page 4991. The only part Mr. Goebel took in the discussion and passaga of this measure was to offer the following amendment, which was rejected by a voto tha board of railroad commissioners, all the power, judiclai or ministerial, necessary to carry it into effect, is also conferred; sad whea in the exerclse of jurisdiction within the purview of the authority conferred on said board, the course of proceeding is act pointed out, any suitable process or modo of proceeding may be adopted by the board which may appear most advanca claims in hehalf of William conformable to the spirit of tha coa-

He comes as a claimant The anoaymons alanderer thus atfor the property which by an unquestioned title beiongs to other men.

As a matter of fact Goebel exhibited no particular interest in any of the constitutional provisions affecting aliroads, with which the general puhile is most coacerned. And as a meniber of the constitutional convention he pursued the same policy which has governed his conduct in the icgislature. He is the author of that provision of the present constitution by which the "representatives" other than the immediate dependents of a person killed in a railroad accident are permitted to recover damages for the injury whereby the death was occasioned. He was looking after matters which affected iaw practice and did not trouble himself about discriminations n freight rates, or long and ahort haul listinctions. Nobody would criticise him for this, were it not that he and hls claquers are constantly trying to make it uppear that he, and he only, has striven to protect the rights of the venders to operate the lottery for six people endangered by corporate encroachment.

This is the second chapter on the dealt with his career as a lawyer, showing that he was as ready to be a corporation stinrney as any one, and aiso showing the reason he was not power, but lacking that ability which omnands success. - Evening Post.

HOME CURE FOR BLOOD POISON

Beware of the Doctors' Patchwork: You Can Cure Yourself at Home.

There is not the slightest doubt that the doctors do more harm than good in treating Contagious Blood Poison; many victims of this loathsome disease would be much better off to-day if they had never allowed themselves to be dosed on marcory and potash, that the model is the best of the control of the cont only remedias which the doctors ever give for blood poison.

The doctors are wholly unable to get rid of

The doctors are wholly unable to get rid of this vile poison, and only attempt to heal up the outward appearance of the disease—the sores and eruptions. This they do by driving the poison into the system, and endsavor to keep it shut in with their constant dises of potash and mercury. The mouth and throat and other delicate parts then break out into sores, and the fight is continued indefinitely, the drugs doing the system more damage than the disease theoit.

Mr. II. L. Myers, IOO Muiberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I had spent a hundred dollars with the doctors, when I realized that thay could do me no good. I had large spots all over my hedy, and these soon broke out into running sores, and I endured all the suffering which this vile disease produces. I deolded to try S. S. S. as a last resort, and was soon greatly improved. I followed closely your 'Directions for Self-Treatmant,' and the large splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I was soon cured perfectly and my skin has been as clear as glass ever since. I cured myself at home, after the doctors had failed completely."

It is valuable time thrown away to expect the doctors

It is valuable time thrown away to expect the doctors to cure Contagious Biood Poison, for the disease is beyond their skill. Swifts Specific— S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

-acts in an entirely different way from potash and mercury-it forces the poison out of the system and gets rid of it entirely. Hence it cures the disease, while other remedies only shut the polson in where it lurks forever, constantly undermining the constitution. Our system of private home treatment places a cure within the reach of all. We give all necessary medical advice, free of charge, and save the patient the emisarrassment of publicity.
